

Regional Service Manager

We are looking for aggressive, experienced Service Managers for our Hydraulic Services Division. Expertise in the mining/construction, recycling, or mill industries is preferred. Applicant must have hands-on hydraulic experience in one or more of the above industries, excellent communication skills, energy, and a need to succeed attitude. When applying, include summation of your skills, experience, education and region that you feel your skills could be of benefit to us. Submit the above in written form with the employment application.