

Sales Representatives

We are looking for aggressive, experienced Sales Representatives for our Precision Machining Division. Expertise in the Original Equipment, Original Component, mining/construction, recycling, or mill industries is preferred. Applicant must have hands-on technical/engineering background (in one or more of the above industries), excellent communication skills, energy, and a need to succeed attitude. When applying, include summation of your skills, experience, education and a region that you feel your skills could be of benefit to us. Submit in written form with employment application.